Newsletter January 2020

Dear Members and Friends,

It is always a pleasure to write this Newsletter to you each January that announces our program events for the Spring. We have some very interesting events that we expect will be very entertaining and informative for you to enjoy them. Please mark your calendars! Our traditional Annual Dinner meeting on June 20th at the historic Longfellow's Wayside Inn will close the spring events and lead us into the summer.

Best wishes for good health and best of times for the New Year from the A-AA Board and me.

Traude Schieber-Acker, President
